

Printer-friendly PDF

Training

Training addresses all roles, levels of responsibility, professional groups and individuals who are motivated to improve their skills and knowledge.
Hours of training by training area

Total training hours by training area
Professional training
Safety and environmental training

Total training hours by professional category

Total training hours by professional category
Management
Technicians
Workers

The priority objective of Piaggio is to continually update individual and organisational skills and bring them in line with the latest market requirements.
In 2013, in particular, Piaggio managerial training courses were continued, including training based on requests from our customers.
Piaggio also values the sharing of its know-how by organising training events managed by internal trainers, with
